MAKERS WANTED BAHAMAS BOWL WEEK 7 NOTEBOOK

WEEK 7 PREVIEW: The MAC has six conference games Saturday. One of the top games on the MAC schedule features Ohio at West Division leader Northern Illinois in a division crossover game. Western Michigan will try to keep pace with Northern Illinois as the Broncos go to Bowling Green. Buffalo, which leads the East Division, hosts Akron. Also in the West, Toledo is at Eastern Michigan and Ball State visits Central Michigan. In the East, Kent State plays at Miami.

In Conference USA on Saturday, West Division co-leader UAB goes to Rice after the Blazers picked up a key victory over Louisiana Tech last week. The other co-leader, UTSA, hosts Louisiana Tech in the Alamodome. Also in the West, Southern Miss visits North Texas as both the Golden Eagles and the Mean Green try to keep pace in the division standings. East Division leader Middle Tennessee, which got a big victory over Marshall last Friday, has a huge division game at FIU. Marshall, part of a group with 1-1 conference records in the East, will try to rebound as the Herd heads to Old Dominion in a East matchup. One of the other 1-1 East teams, Charlotte, will host WKU.

IN THE POLLS: UAB (4-1 overall, 2-0 C-USA) is receiving votes in the Amway Coaches Poll.

CONFERENCE USA NOTES: Middle Tennessee graduate QB Brent Stockstill became the 11th player in C-USA history to pass the 10,000-yard mark in passing yards last Friday against Marshall. He became the third active FBS player to reach that mark and the 24th all-time. UTSA is 2-0 in C-USA play for the first time after the Roadrunners beat Rice 20-3. The three points are the fewest that UTSA has allowed to an FBS team. UAB ranks second nationally in passing yards allowed (134.2 yards per game), Florida Atlantic junior RB Devin "Motor" Singletary leads the FBS ranks with 14 rushing TDs.

MAC NOTES: Ohio head coach Frank Solich earned his 100th career victory with the Bobcats after a 27-26 victory at Kent State. Solich ranks third all-time in the MAC in career coaching wins. Northern Illinois is off to a 3-0 start in MAC play after a 24-16 win at Ball State. The Huskies lead the MAC in scoring defense at 23.7 points per game. Toledo won the I-75 Trophy with a 52-36 victory over rival Bowling Green for the ninth consecutive year. Toledo WR Cody Thompson and Ohio WR Papi White (35 games) are tied for third in the country in consecutive games with a reception.
