MAC BOWL HISTORY

Since the Conference inception in 1946, the MAC has played in 117 bowl games with a 44-73 (.376) overall bowl record. In the early years, bowl games were few and far between before the consistency of a single-bowl game became into existence in 1981. However, over the last decade the MAC has witnessed a significant increase in the number of bowl invitations both from primary and secondary bowl partnerships, but also several at-large bowl selections as well.

From 1946 to 1980, the MAC appeared in a total of 17 bowl games in the first 35 years of the Conference in operation. Then from 1981 to 2000, the MAC witnessed twenty consecutive years of receiving only one bowl invitation each football season.

The MAC forged a bowl partnership with Detroit from 1997-2013 (Motor City Bowl and Little Caesars Pizza Bowl). The MAC added Mobile in 2001 (GMAC Bowl, GoDaddy Bowl, Dollar General Bowl and now LendingTree Bowl) and Boise in 2010 (Humanitarian, now named Famous Idaho Potato Bowl) as primary bowl partners.

Beginning in 2004, the Conference witnessed increased bowl participation in at-large selections as the 2004 bowl season witnessed five MAC programs receive a bowl invitation and that number was matched during the 2008, 2009, 2011, 2013 and 2014 bowl seasons. The Conference sent four programs to bowls in 2006 and 2010. The MAC set a Conference record with seven bowl invitations in the 2012, 2015 and 2019 bowl seasons.

MAC Commissioner Dr. Jon Steinbrecher joined the Conference in 2009 and added Boise as a primary bowl partner in 2010, while adding secondary bowl agreements ranging from New Mexico; St. Petersburg and the Birmingham Bowl in order to provide MAC members the opportunity to represent the Conference and receive additional bowl invitations.

The 2012 bowl season witnessed the conference earn its first BCS Bowl invitation with Northern Illinois gaining a No. 15 BCS ranking and an invite to the Discover Orange Bowl to face Florida State.

In 2014, the MAC announced primary bowl partnerships with the newly created Camellia Bowl (Montgomery, Ala.), Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl (Nassau, Bahamas) and the Cheribundi Boca Raton Bowl (Boca Raton, Fla.). In addition, the MAC secured a secondary bowl partnership with the Quick Lane Bowl (Detroit) during this span (2014-19).

In 2016, Western Michigan's invitation to the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic as a No. 12 ranking to face No. 8 Wisconsin on Jan. 2nd was the MAC's second New Year's Six Bowl Game appearance in league history.

In the last eight bowl seasons, the MAC has a 13-33 overall bowl record in 46 bowl games -- 2018 (1-5); 2017 (1-4); 2016 (0-6); 2015 (3-4); 2014 (2-3); 2013 (0-5); 2012 (2-5); 2011 (4-1). In 2011 the MAC won the ESPN Challenge Cup with a 4-1 record for the best FBS Conference record in bowl games.

- This will be the first meeting between Buffalo and Charlotte.
- After winning 10 games a year ago, the Bulls have won seven or more games in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1958 and 1959.
- Buffalo leads the MAC and ranks fourth in the nation in rush defense, allowing 95.3 yards per game.
- Buffalo running back Jaret Patterson has rushed for 490 yards and 10 touchdowns in the last two games.
- With Jaret Patterson (1,626) and Kevin Marks (1,008), the Bulls have two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season for the first time in school history.
- The Bulls rank second in the nation in sacks allowed (8).
- Buffalo has shattered its single-season rushing total with 3,241 yards. Its previous high was 2,648 yards set last season over 14 games.
- Buffalo's defense has only allowed one 100-yard rusher on the season.
- With 38 sacks, Buffalo has tied the school record for sacks in a season. The Bulls also had 38 sacks in 2013.
- With 1,626 yards rushing, Jaret Patterson has set a new single-season school record and ranks fifth in the nation in rushing.
- The Bulls scored 43 or more points in four of their last five games of the regular season.
- This will be the third different country in which Buffalo will play a bowl game. The Bulls played in the 2009 International Bowl in Toronto.

Patterson Ends Regular Season In Historic Fashion: Jaret Patterson had the best game by a running back in school history against Bowling Green in the regular season finale. The sophomore running back had a school-record 298 rushing yards and a school and MAC-record six touchdowns in a win over Bowling Green.

His performance came on the heels of a 192-yard, four-touchdown performance a week earlier against Toledo. Patterson added a receiving score for a total of five touchdowns against the Rockets. In the last two games, Patterson has rushed for 490 yards and 11 total touchdowns (10 rushing). For his performance against Bowling Green, he became the first UB player ever named the Walter Camp Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week.

Dynamic Duo: Jaret Patterson and Kevin Marks have been a dynamic duo in the Bulls' backfield. Patterson has rushed for 1,626 yards and 17 touchdowns while Marks has accounted for 1,008 yards and eight scores on the year. It marks the first time in school history the Bulls have had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. It also marks the first time since 2012 a MAC team has had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season (Kent State).

While splitting carries, one of the two have posted 100-yard games in eight of the last nine outings. Patterson has seven 100-yard games and Marks has four. They have both gone over 100 yards in the same game three times this season. Both sophomores, Patterson and Marks are already in the top ten in school history in career rushing. Patterson ranks sixth with 2,447 yards and Marks is ninth with 1,853 yards.

Sack Lunch: The Bulls had 27 sacks over the last seven games, including a season-best five in their last three road games at Akron, Eastern Michigan and Kent State. Buffalo has 38 sacks to rank first in the MAC and 12th in the nation. The Bulls have three players in the top two in the MAC in sacks. Taylor Riggins leads the MAC with 8.5 sacks, Ledarius Mack and Malcolm Koonce are tied for second with 7.0 sacks apiece.

Charlotte Notes:

- Charlotte is headed to its first bowl in the program's seven-year football history (five years at the FBS level).
- After a 2-5 start, Charlotte has won five in a row, the longest win streak in school history.
- Three 49ers were named first team all-C-USA by the league's coaches: RB Benny LeMay, OL Cam Clark, DE Alex Highsmith.
- Charlotte set a single-season record with 36.0 sacks. Former walk-on DE Alex Highsmith leads C-USA and ranks 2nd in the FBS with a school-record 14.0 sacks and owns the school's single-game (4.5), season (14.0) and career (20.0) sack records.
- Charlotte leads C-USA in rushing offense (213.3/gm). RB Benny LeMay leads C-USA in all-Purpose Yards (127.9/gm) and ranks second in rushing (103.7/gm).
- LB Jeff Gemmill is the 49ers all-time leader in career tackles (300), becoming the first 49er to reach that milestone.

Reynolds Keys Win Streak: In the last five wins, QB Chris Reynolds has thrown for 1214 yds (242.8/gm) and nine touchdowns while rushing for 531 yds (106.2/gm) and three touchdowns. He's completed 66.1% (80-121) of his passes. Reynolds has twice set school FBS records for passing yards (336 v. NT; 354 at UTEP) and total offense (432 v. NT; 445 at UTEP) and has run for at least 90 yards in each game, with a career-high 145 v. Marshall. He has averaged 349.0 yards of total offense.

Eight Straight Games With Passing Touchdown: Quarterback Chris Reynolds, who began his career as a walk-on, has emerged as one of C-USA's top QBs. Reynolds has completed 62.2% of his passes (166-267) for 2,366 yards (197.2/gm). He leads C-USA in passing efficiency (155.07), ranks 2nd in yards/completion (14.25) and third in passing TDs (21). He is fourth in points responsible for (166) and has had a TD pass in the last eight games.

Mr. 3,000: Senior RB Benny LeMay (3187 career rushing yards) joined Kalif Phillips (career record 4,020 yards) as the only two 49ers that have eclipsed the 3,000-yard plateau. LeMay (1,037 rushing yds) has had back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons and is the first 49er to reach that milestone, twice.

Offensive Output: Charlotte leads C-USA in rushing and time of possession and ranks in the top four in scoring and passing efficiency. The 49ers rushed for 200+ eight times and scored 40+ points three times. 49ers are on pace to shatter existing FBS records for rushing (176.2, 2016) and scoring (25.2; 2016) in a season.

Sack King: Senior DE Alex Highsmith is the 49ers all-time sack king, with school records for career (20.0), single-season (14.0) and single-game (4.5) sacks. A Bednarik Watch Lister and preseason all-C-USA choice, he leads C-USA with 14.0 sacks and ranks 2nd in the nation.

Comeback Kids: Charlotte staged second-half comebacks in wins over North Texas, UTEP and Marshall and scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter, each time.

Noteable: Charlotte did have a football team from 1946-48. A two-year institution that operated as a night school at the time, the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina (CCUNC) was nicknamed the "Owls". CCUNC was a temporary institution designed to handle the influx of servicemen returning from the war. The school, which would go on to become Charlotte College and eventually UNC Charlotte, became a permanent fixture in 1949 (thus the 49ers nickname).

MAC Announces 2019 Post Season Awards

Western Michigan RB LeVante Bellamy Named Offensive Player of the Year & Vern Smith Leadership Award Winner

A total of 24 repeat selections from last year's All-MAC teams highlight the 2019 postseason football awards in the Mid-American Conference as Central Michigan, Miami, Western Michigan and Kent State swept the annual awards.

Western Michigan senior running back LeVante Bellamy was tabbed as the winner of the 38th Vern Smith Leadership Award as the top player in the MAC and was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year. Central Michigan Head Coach Jim McElwain was selected as the MAC Head Coach of the Year, while Miami quarterback Brett Gabbert was named MAC Freshman of the Year. Western Michigan junior Treshaun Hayward was selected as MAC Defensive Player of the Year, while Kent State sophomore kicker Matt Trickett was named MAC Special Teams Player of the Year.

McElwain is in his first season in leading the Central Michigan program and has the Chippewas in the Marathon MAC Football Championship Game for the first time since 2009. McElwain has led the program to a dramatic turnaround as Central Michigan's seven wins improvement from last year is the best in FBS this season as the Chippewas have turned a 1-11 overall record, 0-8 in the MAC in 2018, into an 8-5 overall mark in 2019 and the West Division title with a 6-2 league record.

Bellamy, a native of Indianapolis, Ind., leads the nation with 23 rushing touchdowns and ranks eighth in the nation with 1,412 yards rushing this season. Bellamy's 23 rushing touchdowns this season rank tied for fourth best in MAC single-season history. Bellamy had 248 carries this year and averaged 5.7 yards per carry and 117.7 yards per game. Bellamy was tied for second in the nation with 138 points this season for an average of 11.5 points per game. Bellamy was part of a Western Michigan offense that was second in total offense in the MAC (457.2 yards per game) and third in the MAC in scoring (34.2 points per game).

Hayward, a native of Ypsilanti, Mich., led the Broncos and ranked second in the MAC and fifth in the nation with 132 total tackles. His 10.5 tackles for loss ranked tied for 10th in the MAC and his five sacks were tied for seventh most in the league. Hayward added one forced fumble and one fumble recovered. Hayward was part of a Western Michigan defense that ranked second in the MAC in scoring defense (26.2 points per game) as the Broncos are bowl eligible for the sixth consecutive season.

Gabbert, a native of St. Louis, Mo., started all 13 games for Miami and led the RedHawks offense with 2,163 yards passing and 11 touchdowns. Gabbert completed 153-of-285 attempts for a 53.7% and averaged 166.4 yards passing per game. Gabbert led Miami to an 8-5 overall record, the MAC East Division title and the 2019 Marathon MAC Football Championship title with a 26-21 win over Central Michigan for the program's first title since the 2010 season.

Trickett, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, led the MAC and was tied for second in the country with a career-high 24 field goals made in leading Kent State to a 6-6 overall record, 5-3 in the MAC, and bowl eligibility for the first time since 2012. Trickett was 24-of-29 field goals made this season for an 82.7% and led the MAC with 107 total points. His 107 points for an average of 8.9 points per game ranked 21st in the nation.

Western Michigan led the way in 2019 with six First-Team selections, followed by Central Michigan and Buffalo with five First-Team selections, while Ball State featured four First-Team honorees. Overall, Western Michigan set the pace with 13 All-MAC selections, followed by Buffalo with 12 All-MAC selections and Ball State with 10 All-MAC honorees, followed by Central Michigan and Miami with nine All-MAC selections.

There were four students named to their second First Team All-MAC selection: senior safety Javon Hagan (Ohio), sophomore kicker Matthew Trickett (Kent State), senior running back LeVante Bellamy (Western Michigan) and senior offensive lineman Luke Juriga (Western Michigan).
