2014 POPEYES BAHAMAS BOWL: WKU 49, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 48 (DEC. 24, 2014)

WKU survived a furious Central Michigan fourth-quarter comeback, which included a 75-yard last-gasp relay play for a touchdown as time expired, but a broken-up 2-point conversion attempt following the improbable TD gave the Hilltoppers a 49-48 victory and the inaugural Popeyes Bahamas Bowl title.

The four-person relay by the Chippewas was an immediate hit on ESPN and social media. The final TD was named the play of the bowl season by ESPN's SportsCenter and was a finalist for a Best Play ESPY.

WKU (8-6) finally put an end to Central Michigan's 34-point fourth quarter with a defensive stop in the back corner of the end zone.

Trailing 49-42 with one second remaining, the Central Michigan offense lined up for one final prayer from its 25 that was answered.

Quarterback Cooper Rush heaved one last gasp pass 47 yards down the field where it was caught by Jesse Kroll at the Hilltoppers 28. Then chaos ensued. After laterals from Kroll, Deon Butler and Courtney Williams, Titus Davis raced 15 yards, dove and grazed the pylon - launching the crowd into pandemonium.

With the WKU lead trimmed to an unimaginably thin 49-48, the Chippewas (7-6) threw caution to the wind and tried for a 2-point conversion in hopes of winning the game. Rush threw for Kroll, but WKU defensive back Wonderful Terry broke up the fade-route pass to give WKU its first FBS bowl victory in school history under first-year head coach Jeff Brohm.

CMU head coach Dan Enos discussed the decision to go for two and the victory. "We didn't want to go to overtime because we had had trouble stopping them all day," explained Enos. "I looked at the players and said, 'What do you got?' and they said, 'Let's do it. Let's win this game.'"

Popeyes Bahamas Bowl Player of the Game honors went to WKU's Brandon Doughty (offense) and WKU defensive end Derik Overstreet (defense). Doughty threw for 486 yards, 350 in the first half with five touchdowns, all to different receivers. Overstreet recorded five tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss that included two second-half sacks.

Before the nightmarish fourth quarter, the Hilltoppers played as crisp and dominant a game as they had all season long.

Doughty threw five touchdown passes in the first half to Jared Dangerfield, Joel German, Antwane Grant, Mitchell Henry and Willie McNeal to go with a rushing TD from Leon Allen as WKU scored on each of their six first-half possessions against the MAC's top defense for a 42-14 halftime lead. Rush also threw for a pair of scores to Davis and Williams in the half.

That Hilltopper advantage was extended to 49-14 after Allen scored on a 21-yard run midway through the third quarter.

The fourth quarter was a different story, as Rush connected with Davis for touchdowns twice to cut WKU's lead to 49-28. Then defensive end Joe Ostman flipped a 52-yard completion to WKU's McNeal inside out by forcing a fumble at the Central Michigan 13, which was recovered by Chippewas corner Tony Annese. Annese returned the fumble back to the CMU 36, and from there, Central Michigan marched down the field to score on a Rush TD pass to Williams to trail by 14.

WKU was forced to punt on their ensuing possession, and a four-play, 55-second drive capped by a 7-yard TD strike from Rush to Anthony Garland with 1:09 left gave Central Michigan hope.

WKU successfully recovered the CMU onside kick after the score and milked the clock before being forced to punt, which set up the final frenzied play for the Chippewas that left the stadium breathless and WKU in possession of the inaugural Popeyes Bahamas Bowl trophy.

Rush set FBS bowl records for touchdown passes with seven and most net passing yards with 255 in the fourth quarter alone. The combined 971 passing yards and 12 TD passes for Doughty and Rush also broke FBS two-team bowl records.

2015 POPEYES BAHAMAS BOWL: WESTERN MICHIGAN 45, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 31 (DEC. 24, 2015)

Jamauri Bogan rushed 19 times for a career-high 215 yards and four touchdowns to power Western Michigan to a 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee in the 2015 Popeyes Bahamas Bowl.

It was one big play after another in the contest, as the two teams combined for 1,055 yards of total offense and seven scoring plays of 29 or more yards.

But it was a pair of 1-yard plunges just 1:12 apart in the fourth quarter by the redshirt freshman Bogan that made the difference.

After his 61-yard run set Western Michigan (8-5) up in the red zone, Bogan banged in from a yard out with 6:12 left in the game to give the Broncos a 38-31 advantage.

Three plays later, safety Rontavious Atkins intercepted MTSU quarterback Brent Stockstill and returned the ball 29 yards to the 4-yard line. It took two runs for Bogan to find the end zone, gaining three yards on first down before finding paydirt on second down with 5:00 left to play.

The Bronco defense held on downs on Middle Tennessee's ensuing possession and the WMU offense ran out the clock to seal the victory.

"This is what 'Row the Boat' is all about," WMU head coach P.J. Fleck said. "This is why it was invented. This is what it's for. There was all types of adversity in that football game that our kids could have given up, could have folded. Two years ago, we probably would have. Last year, we would have done it some of the time. This year, no way."

Bogan was named the Offensive Player of the Game of the game for his efforts, while WMU linebacker Grant DePalma was named the game's Defensive Player of the Game. DePalma led all tacklers with 12 stops (five solo) and a tackle for loss.

WMU quarterback Zach Terrell was 18-of-26 passing for 297 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Corey Davis caught eight balls for 183 yards and a TD.

Stockstill had a solid day for Middle Tennessee (7-6), completing 26-of-39 passes for 327 yards and three scores to lead the Blue Raider offense. His top target was James Richie, who caught eight passes for 126 yards and two scores and ran twice for 61 yards and a third touchdown.

The two teams combined for 475 yards of total offense and 34 points in the first quarter.

It took MTSU only 1:17 to get on the board when James scored the first of his three touchdowns on a 46-yard run to quickly make it 7-0.

Bogan answered just three plays later, running up the middle for 62 yards and a TD, and it was 7-7 with only 2:17 gone in the contest.

Stockstill hit James on a 44-yard scoring pass just 1:39 later to put Middle Tennessee back on top 14-7.

Andrew Haldeman drilled a 47-yard field goal with 3:23 left in the first quarter to pull Western Michigan within 14-10.

Cody Clark kicked a 23-yard field goal on the Blue Raiders' next possession to extend the lead to 17-10 with 1:04 left in the quarter.

The Broncos quickly tied the game at 17-all when Terrell hit Davis on an 80-yard pass and run with three seconds left in the opening quarter. Davis caught the ball on a 5-yard hitch pattern, broke a tackle and raced the remaining 75 yards down the sideline for the score.

WMU struck quickly in the second half on another 46-yard run by Bogan to go up 24-17 with 2:57 gone.

After a short punt set MTSU up at the Western Michigan 32-yard line, it took just two plays for the Blue Raiders to tie the game. Stockstill hit Christian Collis on a 17-yard pass with 28 seconds left in the third quarter to tie the game at 24-24.

Terrell hit Braverman on a 68-yard scoring pass to put WMU back on top 31-24 with 12:47 to play in the game.

Again, MTSU answered when Stockstill hit James on a 29-yard pass with 9:41 left in the game to tie it at 31-31.

Western Michigan finished the day with an impressive 613 yards of total offense, and the Broncos, second in FBS in time of possession, held the ball for nearly 35 minutes.

2016 POPEYES BAHAMAS BOWL: OLD DOMINION 24, EASTERN MICHIGAN 20 (DEC. 23, 2016)

Old Dominion, making the school's first bowl appearance since the football program restarted in 2009, held off Eastern Michigan 24-20 to win the 2016 Popeyes Bahamas Bowl.

"I just want to say how excited we are to win the game, but number two how grateful we are for how we were treated this week by everybody associated with the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl – all the wonderful people we met," ODU head coach Bobby Wilder said. "This was a life-changing experience. We made memories to last a lifetime, and to win the game makes it that much more special."

Led by Offensive Player of the Game running back Ray Lawry and his 133 rushing yards, the Monarchs (10-3) left the Bahamas with a six-game win streak and their first bowl trophy. Quarterback David Washington added 188 passing yards and three touchdowns for ODU.

"He's really good, obviously tough to tackle," EMU head coach Chris Creighton said of Lawry. "We've become a pretty good tackling team, and I think today, he had a lot to do with several missed tackles. Their running game obviously didn't trip today."

Eastern Michigan quarterback Brogan Roback did all he could to keep the Eagles (7-6) in the game, throwing for 300 yards and two second-half touchdowns, but it was not enough to help EMU to a title in their first bowl game in 29 years.

Eastern Michigan dominated the time of possession, holding the ball 32:30 to the Monarchs' 27:30, and converted on a season-high 13 third-downs, but it was the Old Dominion defense that made one final stand late in the fourth quarter.

ODU senior linebacker TJ Ricks was named Defensive Player of the Game after finishing with nine tackles, including one for a loss.

"The defense ... we just came to the sideline and talked to each other and just told each other to trust each other," Ricks said of the entire ODU defensive performance. "You're our 1/11th on the field. If one guy does his job, and everybody else does their job, we'll be good on defense."

Through the first 30 minutes, Old Dominion was the only team able to put points on the board, holding a 10-0 lead at the half.

ODU scored first when Brad Davis connected on a 34-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead with 7:43 remaining in the first quarter. The 16-play, 58-yard drive appeared to stall at midfield when the Monarchs faced a fourth-and-two situation. Wilder dialed up a fake punt, calling a direct snap to running back Jeremy Cox, who drove the ball three yards for the first down.

Old Dominion extended its lead to 10-0 behind a 47-yard touchdown pass from Washington to Zach Pascal. The six-play, 80-yard drive began with Anthony Wilson picking off Roback in the end zone for a touchback, and the drive took just 2:23.

After receiving the kickoff to start the second half, Roback put the Eagles on the board, driving his team 76 yards in 2:50, capped off by a five-yard strike to wide receiver Sergio Bailey to cut the Old Dominion lead to 10-7.

It didn't take long for the Monarchs to respond, as Washington found Travis Fulgham downfield for a 31-yard touchdown with no defender in sight to push the ODU lead to 17-7 with 9:50 remaining in the third quarter.

Roback hit Johnnie Niupalau for a five-yard touchdown pass, capitalizing on another quick drive to pull to 17-14 with 7:25 left in the third quarter.

A 24-yard field goal by Eastern Michigan's Paul Fricano with 12 seconds remaining in the third tied the game at 17-17.

Opening the fourth quarter, Washington drove Old Dominion 72 yards in 2:09 to put the Monarchs back on top 24-17 after hitting Jonathan Duhart on a five-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone – his third passing touchdown of the game.

Fricano connected on a 19-yard field goal with 9:08 to play to cut the Monarchs lead to 24-20.

The Eagles had a chance late, driving the ball to midfield, but couldn't keep their drive going, punting the ball back to Old Dominion. ODU ran out the final 5:21 to secure the victory.

Linebacker Kyle Rachwal led the Eagles defense with eight tackles.

2017 BAHAMAS BOWL: OHIO 41, UAB 6 (DEC. 22, 2017)

Dorian Brown tied a Bahamas Bowl record with four touchdown runs to lead Ohio to a 41-6 victory over UAB in the 2017 Bahamas Bowl.

The Bobcats (9-4) posted their first bowl game win since 2012 and the third bowl game win in the history of the Ohio program.

The Blazers, who reinstated their football program this year after a two-year hiatus, finished with an 8-5 record.

Ohio swept the postgame awards as Brown was named the Offensive Player of the Game and safety Javon Hagan was named the Defensive Player of the Game.

Brown scored on runs of 74, 9, 25 and 14 yards and ended the day with 152 yards rushing on just 12 carries. Hagan had a game-high nine tackles (six solo) and a forced fumble to lead the stout Ohio defense.

"It was a great win," Ohio head coach Frank Solich said. "We certainly appreciate all this team has been about - the way they've gone through the season, the way they started to prepare for the Bahamas Bowl at home and then continue the preparation here. To end up playing a very, very good football game, I couldn't be any more pleased. I feel like eight wins were not enough with this football team, so this ninth win puts a little icing on the cake."

The Bobcats scored on their opening possession, marching 75 yards in 11 plays. Nathan Rourke hit D.L. Knock on a 2-yard touchdown pass with 6:41 gone in the contest.

Rourke then hit Papi White on a 56-yard TD strike on Ohio's second possession with 3:40 left in the first quarter. White led all receivers in the contest with four catches for 106 yards and a score. Ohio missed the PAT as the Bobcats led 13-0.

Ohio made it 20-0 when Brown raced 74 yards for his first touchdown of the day with 12:26 left in the first half.

UAB got on the board with a 34-yard field goal by Nick Vogel to pull within 20-3 at the 7:28 mark of the second quarter.

Brown got his second touchdown of the game on an 9-yard run with 1:17 left in the first half. Louie Zervos made the PAT, and Ohio's lead was 27-3 at intermission.

UAB took the second-half kickoff, marched 83 yards in 11 plays and converted on a 25-yard field goal by Vogel to pull within 27-6 with 10:46 left in the third quarter.

After a 34-yard punt return by Kylan Nelson gave OU the ball at the UAB 25, Brown raced in on the next play to make it 34-6 with 7:45 to play in the third period.

Brown's fourth and final score of the day was a 14-yard scamper with 4:05 left in the third to wrap up the scoring.

"I missed two games last time we played," Brown said. "It actually motivated me. I give a lot of props to the O-line as well, because they did a tremendous job blocking and making it easy for me to run the ball."

A.J. Erdely completed 24-of-45 passes for 254 yards for the Blazers.

Rourke finished the day 12-of-18 passing for 185 yards and two touchdowns and ran three times for 30 yards to finish with 215 yards of total offense.

Ohio's A.J. Ouellette ran eight times for 26 yards, which put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season at 1,006 yards in 13 games.

Ohio out-gained UAB 459-353 in total offense as the Bobcats evened the Bahamas Bowl series at 2-2 between the Mid-American Conference and Conference USA.

"This was not our day today," UAB head coach Bill Clark said. "But this won't take anything away from what this group has done. It was a historic year, our group has set the bar very high for the next UAB teams to come."

Defensively for UAB, Anthony Rush and Tevin Crews had a team-high seven tackles each.

"Being from Florida, it felt good to get the heat again because it's so cold in Ohio," Hagan said. "The food was fantastic. This bowl is just a great experience. It's definitely one of the best bowls I've experienced so far. The atmosphere, the water, the beach, the slides, it was just so fun. I felt like a little kid again."

2018 MAKERS WANTED BAHAMAS BOWL: FIU 35, TOLEDO 32 (DEC. 21, 2018)

FIU erased a 10-0 first-quarter deficit by halftime, and the Panthers held on for a 35-32 victory over Toledo in the 2018 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl.

The bowl game was played in a strong tropical breeze between 15-20 MPH and near-perfect field conditions at kickoff after early-morning storms blew over New Providence Island several hours before game time.

FIU quarterback Christian Alexander was named the Offensive Player of the Game, going 17-for-26 through the air for 209 yards and a touchdown. He also added 87 yards on 10 carries, which set the bowl's record for a quarterback.

Panther running back Anthony Jones carried the ball 15 times for 92 yards and three touchdowns to lead FIU in rushing. The Panthers had a 236-124 advantage in rushing yards.

FIU linebacker Edwin Freeman was selected as the Defensive Player of the Game as he led the Panthers with eight tackles, including five unassisted stops.

FIU (9-4) closed the season with a school-record nine victories.

"It's spectacular to have won this game. These kids, the things that our entire football team has done for the last 10 or 11 months have been amazing," said FIU head coach Butch Davis. "The hard work, the dedication, the unselfishness - you don't win nine football games and set a school record for the most victories or win a bowl game without an awful lot of great plays."

The Toledo (7-6) scoring offense also flexed its muscles at times, led by quarterback Eli Peters, who threw for 264 yards and three touchdowns and was the Rockets' rushing leader with five carries for 43 yards. Jon'Vea Johnson caught two of the touchdown tosses, while Diontae Johnson had six receptions for 98 yards and a score.

Toledo stole the momentum right away when Terrance Taylor forced a fumble on the opening kickoff that was recovered and returned to the FIU 3 by DeDarallo Blue. Two plays later, Bryant Koback powered three yards for a touchdown to give the Rockets a 7-0 lead just 23 seconds into the game - the fastest touchdown in the bowl's history.

The Rockets extended their lead to 10-0 on a 28-yard field goal by Jameson Vest with 12 seconds left in the first quarter.

The second quarter belonged to FIU, as the Panthers took a 14-10 lead into halftime, thanks to a pair of lengthy touchdown drives. The Panthers got on the board on an eight-play, 75-yard drive capped off by a six-yard run by Jones to cut Toledo's lead to 10-7 with 12:44 left in the half.

Alexander then connected on a 36-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Palmer to complete a seven-play, 96-yard scoring drive, the longest scoring drive by yards in the bowl's history.

The Rockets marched down the field on their first possession of the third quarter and scored on a Peters seven-yard touchdown pass to Jon'Vea Johnson for Toledo's final lead of the game at 17-14.

Jones scored his second touchdown of the day on a 30-yard sprint with 3:47 left in the third quarter to put FIU up for good at 21-17.

The fourth quarter saw plenty of scoring as FIU worked to hold off a Toledo comeback. Maurice Alexander extended the Panthers' lead to 28-17 with 11:12 remaining in the game on a 16-yard TD run.

Toledo made it interesting midway through the final quarter by closing the gap to 28-25 with 7:21 to go. Peters connected with Diontae Johnson for a two-yard touchdown and then followed it up with a 2-point conversion on a pass to Cody Thompson.

The Panthers iced the game with a drive that took 6:40 off the clock. Jones' third TD run of the game, an 18-yard scamper with 41 seconds to play, pushed the FIU advantage to 35-25.

Peters hit Jon'Vea Johnson for a 43-yard TD pass with two seconds left for Toledo to cut the margin to 35-32, but the Panthers recovered the ensuing onside kick to seal the victory, and FIU raised the Prime Minister's Trophy as a bowl champion for the first time since 2010.

Maurice Alexander led the Panthers with five catches for 30 yards, while Tony Gaiter IV had four catches for 52 yards.

Linebacker Richard Olekanma and defensive end Tuzar Skipper each had eight total tackles to lead Toledo.

2019 MAKERS WANTED BAHAMAS BOWL: BUFFALO 31, CHARLOTTE 9 (DEC. 20, 2019)

Buffalo running back Jaret Patterson rushed a bowl-record 32 times for 173 yards and two touchdowns to help secure the program's first-ever bowl victory, as the Bulls defeated Charlotte 31-9 in the 2019 Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl.

Patterson was selected as the Offensive Player of the Game and punctuated the victory with his second touchdown run with 1:43 left in the contest. The Bulls' final drive went for 16 plays and spanned 9:07. Patterson accounted for 81 rushing yards on 13 attempts during the drive, as he was handed the ball on the first nine plays of the possession to ice the game.

Buffalo defensive end Malcolm Koonce was awarded Defensive Player of the Game honors thanks to his five tackles, two sacks and one forced fumble. Koonce's strip sack of Charlotte quarterback Chris Reynolds was recovered by the Bulls' Ledarius Mack with six seconds remaining in the second quarter and helped the Bulls preserve a 17-0 lead heading into halftime.

"I'm really proud of our guys, especially after a layoff, to play as well as we did, as physical as we did," said Buffalo head coach Lance Leipold. "We were able to establish the running game. Our defense, especially in the first half, played outstanding. We got some key fourth down stops, created a couple turnovers. It's a team effort, but these three gentlemen sitting next to me (Patterson, Koonce, James Patterson) had great days and great seasons."

Buffalo (8-5) finished the season with three straight victories and five victories in the Bulls' final six games. Charlotte (7-6) fell in the 49ers' first bowl appearance in school history.

Aside from Patterson's performance on the ground, both defenses turned in solid performances. Buffalo held a slight 282-278 advantage in total offense. The combined 560 yards were the fewest in Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl history, which was a distinction previously held by the 2017 game between Ohio and UAB (812 combined yards).

Charlotte defensive end Markees Watts led all players with 11 tackles, while safety Marquavis Gibbs tallied an interception for the 49ers. Buffalo linebacker James Patterson (Jaret's twin brother) also had an interception for the Bulls.

After forcing a three-and-out on Charlotte's first drive of the game, Buffalo marched 61 yards in seven plays to go up 7-0 at the 9:12 mark of the first quarter. Patterson ran the ball five times for 46 yards on the drive, while Antonio Nunn caught two passes from Kyle Vantrease for 15 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown reception along the right sideline of the endzone.

The Bulls went up 14-0 with 3:33 left in the first half on a one-yard sneak by Vantrease. Buffalo moved the ball deliberately down the field for the score, running 15 plays (11 rushes) and taking 8:26 off the clock.

James Patterson intercepted Reynolds on the 49ers' next play from scrimmage and returned it 20 yards to the Charlotte 12, setting up the short field. The 49ers defense held strong, though, holding the Bulls to a 31-yard field goal by Alex McNulty that put Buffalo up 17-0 with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Jaret Patterson added to the Bulls' lead at 5:22 in the third with a six-yard touchdown run. Buffalo took over on downs to start the drive at the Charlotte 43-yard line with 9:07 on the clock, and it was a healthy dose of Patterson from there. He rushed the ball on five of the seven plays, including the score to put the Bulls up 24-0.

Charlotte got on the scoreboard with 2:20 left in the third on a 51-yard touchdown strike from Reynolds to Victor Tucker. Tucker caught a short crossing route and did the rest with his feet, alluding several Bulls defenders en route to the end zone. The 49ers two-point attempt came up short, keeping the score at 24-6.

On the next Buffalo drive, Charlotte forced a quick three-and-out. After taking over via punt on their own 31-yard line, the 49ers went 54 yards on 10 plays to set up a successful 32-yard field goal by Jonathan Cruz. That score cut the deficit to 24-9 with 10:50 to go in the game before Patterson and the Bulls put the game away with their final drive.

Nunn led the Bulls with five catches for 53 yards and a score, while Charlotte's Tyler Ringwood had five receptions for 64 yards.

OFFENSE

QB (tie)-Brandon Doughty, WKU (2014): In a shootout that defined the Bahamas Bowl's inaugural game, Doughty threw for 350 yards (bowl record for one half) and five touchdowns -- all in the first half as the Hilltoppers built a 42-14 halftime lead. He finished 31-for-42 passing with 486 yards as the Hilltoppers held off a furious rally by Central Michigan to win 49-48. Doughty, who was the bowl's first Offensive Player of the Game, also holds bowl records for completions (31) and completion percentage (73.8).

QB (tie)-Cooper Rush, Central Michigan (2014): Rush set the NCAA all-bowl record with seven touchdown passes and holds the bowl record with 493 yards on 28-of-45 passing in a losing effort to WKU. Rush also set the NCAA all-bowl record with an incredible 255 passing yards in the fourth quarter alone on 13-of-17 passing for five TDs as the Chippewas rallied from a 49-14 deficit to pull to 49-48 after an exhilarating final-play, three-lateral passing touchdown as time expired.

RB-Jamauri Bogan, Western Michigan (2015): Bogan set bowl records for most rushing yards (215), most rushing TDs (four), and most rushing yards in a half (152 in the second half) on 19 carries on the way to Offensive Player of the Game honors as the Broncos beat Middle Tennessee 45-31. Bogan gashed the Blue Raiders defense on scoring runs of 62 and 46 yards and added a 61-yard carry.

RB-Dorian Brown, Ohio (2017): Brown was selected as the bowl's Offensive Player of the Game as he tied the bowl record with four rushing TDs, including the longest TD carry in bowl history -- a 74-yard sprint. He made the most of his 12 carries for 152 yards to set the bowl mark for highest average per rush (12.7) in the Bobcats' dominant 41-6 victory over UAB.

WR-Corey Davis, Western Michigan (2015): A year after his brother, Titus, had a big performance in the Bahamas Bowl for Central Michigan, Corey set records of his own for Western Michigan against Middle Tennessee as he had a bowl-record

183 receiving yards on eight receptions (tied for most in Bahamas Bowl history), including a bowl-record 184 receiving yards in a single half and averaged 22.9 yards per reception in the 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee. He was selected No. 5 overall by the Tennessee Titans in the 2017 NFL Draft, the highest selection of a Bahamas Bowl alumnus in the game's history.

WR-Titus Davis, Central Michigan (2014): Davis, the older brother of Corey, had a huge day in the inaugural Bahamas Bowl with six receptions for 137 yards and a NCAA all-bowl-record-tying four TDs -- three in the fourth quarter, including a memorable 15-yard sprint to the goal line to finish off a three-lateral play on the final play from scrimmage -- as the Chippewas rallied from a 35-point deficit to fall just short to WKU.

TE-Mitchell Henry, WKU (2014): Henry caught three passes for 47 yards and a second-quarter touchdown in the Hilltoppers' 49-48 victory over Central Michigan. Henry was the first undrafted player in Bahamas Bowl history to play in the NFL, as he saw action in two games with the Denver Broncos in 2015. He died of acute myeloid leukemia in June 2017 at age 24.

C-Mike Novitsky, Buffalo (2019): Novitsky anchored the Bulls' offensive line that led the way to 205 rushing yards and three TDs on 46 carries. The O-line did not give up a sack and allowed only three tackles for loss in a 31-9 victory over Charlotte.

G-Forrest Lamp, WKU (2014): Lamp was a member of the Hilltoppers' offensive line that posted a bowl-record 647 yards of total offense in the 49-48 shootout against Central Michigan. He was selected by the Los Angeles Chargers in the second round (No. 38 overall) in the 2017 NFL Draft.

G-Taylor Moton, Western Michigan (2015): Moton was part of an offensive line that racked up 613 yards of total offense against Middle Tennessee in the Broncos' 45-31 victory, second most in bowl history. He was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the second round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

T-Willie Beavers, Western Michigan (2015): Beavers helped the Broncos offense set a record for the highest average yardage per play (9.0) in the 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee. He was selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the sixth round of the 2016 NFL Draft -- the first offensive lineman in Bahamas Bowl history to be drafted.

T-Chukwuma Okorafor, Western Michigan (2015): Okorafor was a part of the Broncos' offensive line that totaled 613 yards of total offense (second in bowl history) in the 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee. He was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

DEFENSE

DE-Malcolm Koonce, Buffalo (2019): Koonce tied the bowl record with two sacks among his five total tackles and added two tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a quarterback hurry to earn the Defensive Player of the Game award in the Bulls' dominant 31-9 victory over Charlotte.

DE-Derik Overstreet, WKU (2014): Overstreet set bowl records with 2.5 tackles for loss and two sacks for minus-13 yards to go along with five total tackles for Defensive Player of the Game honors in the Hilltoppers' 49-48 victory over Central Michigan in the inaugural Bahamas Bowl.

DT-Anthony Rush, UAB (2017): Rush tied for the team lead with seven total tackles (six assisted) in the Blazers' 41-6 defeat to Ohio. The six assists is the most by a defensive tackle in the bowl's history.

DT-Letterius Walton, Central Michigan (2014): Walton had three tackles (two solo) in the 49-48 defeat to WKU. He was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, and was the first Bahamas Bowl alumnus selected and the first to play in the NFL.

LB-Grant DePalma, Western Michigan (2015): DePalma set the bowl record with 12 total tackles (five solo, seven assisted) in the Broncos' 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee on the way to Defensive Player of the Game honors.

LB-Edwin Freeman, FIU (2018): Freeman led the Panthers with eight tackles, including five unassisted stops, in the 35-32 victory over Toledo. He was selected as the Defensive Player of the Game.

LB-TJ Ricks, Old Dominion (2016): Ricks led the Monarchs with nine tackles, including one for loss, for Defensive Player of the Game honors in the 24-20 victory over Eastern Michigan. He anchored an ODU defense that posted a bowl-record 90 total tackles and a late stand that preserved the first bowl victory in the school's history.

CB-Jamez Brickhouse, Old Dominion (2016): Brickhouse was all over the field for the Monarchs in the 24-20 victory over Eastern Michigan with 11 total tackles, including a bowl-record eight solo stops.

CB-Wonderful Terry, WKU (2018): Set the bowl record for pass breakups in the inaugural game with four, but his last one was the most important as he tipped away a two-point conversion pass in the back of the end zone on the final play of the game to preserve WKU's 49-48 victory over Central Michigan.

S-Christian Byrum, Old Dominion (2016): Byrum had 11 total tackles, the most by a safety in the bowl's history in the Monarchs' 24-20 victory over Eastern Michigan. He also set a record for assisted tackles with eight.

S-Javon Hagan, Ohio (2017): Hagan posted nine total tackles (six solo; tied for second in bowl history) and a pair of pass breakups in the Bobcats' 41-6 victory over UAB. He was selected as the bowl's Defensive Player of the Game.

SPECIAL TEAMS

P-Matt Bonadies, Middle Tennessee (2015): Bonadies averaged 44.8 yards (40.0 net yards) on five punts for the Blue Raiders, including a 52-yarder, and placed two inside the Western Michigan 20-yard line in the defeat to the the Broncos.

PK-Andrew Haldeman, Western Michigan (2015): Haldeman had a big day in the Broncos' 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee as he made 6-of-6 extra-point kicks and added a bowl-record 47-yard field goal in the first quarter.

RET-Andre Wilson, UAB (2017): Wilson set two bowl records in his four kickoff returns against Ohio as he gained 102 yards, including a 45-yarder. He averaged 25.5 yards per return, and he returned one punt for five yards. He was also the Blazers' leading receiver with six catches for 58 yards.

COACH

P.J. Fleck, Western Michigan (2015): Fleck's Broncos squad came to the Bahamas with a 7-5 record, and pulled away for a 45-31 victory over Middle Tennessee. Fleck's unbridled enthusiastic mantra of "Row The Boat" got national attention, and the Broncos used the Bahamas Bowl success as a springboard to an undefeated regular season, a MAC title and a New Year's Six bowl berth in 2016.
